SAMPLE ASSESSMENT MATERIALS

1 hour 30 minutes

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

You will be provided with an unannotated copy of the set products for this component in the examination for use with section A.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Use black ink or black ball-point pen. Do not use gel pen. Do not use correction fluid.

- Answers to all questions must be written in this answer book.
- Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.
- At the end of the examination, the answer book must be handed to the invigilator.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The allocation of marks is given at the end of each question or part-question. The number of marks indicates the length of the response required.

You are advised to spend approximately 55 minutes on Section A, including 10 minutes to study the print-based resource, and approximately 35 minutes on Section B.

You should use relevant subject-specific terminology and relevant theories where appropriate.

Question 2(b) requires an extended response. You will be assessed on the quality of your written response, including the ability to construct and develop a sustained line of reasoning which is coherent, relevant, substantiated and logically structured.

Question 4(d) provides an opportunity to draw together knowledge and understanding from across the full course of study. You will be rewarded for drawing together knowledge and understanding of different areas of the theoretical framework and media contexts.

Section A: Exploring Media Language and Representation

Answer all parts of Questions 1 and 2.

Media Language

Question 1 is based on the 1950s advertisement for Quality Street from the set products. Use the advertisement when answering the question.

1. Explore how the advertisement for Quality Street uses the following elements of media language to create meanings:
 - (a) images [5]
 - (b) language [5]
 - (c) layout and design. [5]

Representation

2. (a) Explain how social context influences magazines. Refer to Pride magazine to support your points. [5]

Question 2(b) is based on the front cover of Pride magazine from the set products and Resource A, the front cover of Glamour magazine provided on page 7. Study Resource A carefully and use both front pages when answering the question.

- (b) Compare the representation of women in the Pride front cover and the Glamour front cover. [25]

In your answer, you must consider:

- the choices the producers have made about how to represent women
- how far the representation of women is similar in the two front covers
- how far the representation of women is different in the two front covers.

Resource A – front cover of Glamour women's magazine, March 2016

To be used with Section A, Question 2(b)
